2026-2027!*

The mission of the St. Cecilia Guild is "to enrich the life of St. Peter's Episcopal Church and the broader community on the Eastern Shore through the promotion of excellent liturgy, music and art to the greater glory of God."

Lauma Akmene M.Mus. St. Peter's Director of Music

Lauma Akmene was appointed Director of Music at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Salisbury, MD, in June 2025. She is an accomplished music director, organist, and conductor with experience across Latvia, Canada, and the United States. She has performed at festivals including the XV Latvian Song and Dance Festival in Toronto and the 37th International Organ Music Festival at Riga Cathedral, and has collaborated with the Grammy-winning Pacific Boychoir Academy.

Deeply connected to her Latvian heritage, Lauma served as Artistic Director of the Northern California Latvian Choir and champions works by Latvian composers, female composers, and composers of color. She studied organ at McGill University, church music at the Luther Academy in Riga, and organ and piano at the Academy of Music, Dance and Fine Arts in Plovdiv. At St. Peter's, she directs the music program, oversees liturgical music, and organizes concerts and special events, bringing excellence and cultural richness to worship and the wider community.
